Why should brands consider incorporating AR, games and immersive experiences into their marketing mix?

The answer lies in the engagement funnel. Interactive and immersive experiences have unparalleled engagement and brand recall as they make use of more human senses vs other digital assets.

alivenow.in

- > Reach of Augmented Reality: 3.5 billion plus and counting
- > AR experiences deliver higher brand recall and increased purchase intent
- > AR enables and simplifies user generated content like never before
- > No better way to let customers "try before you buy"
- > With AR: Voice + Gestures like blink, open mouth, move your hands, etc. Without AR: Click, tap, swipe
- > Augmented reality and the marketing funnel
- > AR is Immersive: Ability to do more with AR & 3D vs flat UI & 2D
- > Hyper-casual gaming is way more fun in AR
- > It costs less, it's faster to build, and there's a great community to help!
